Biography

William Hurlin was born July 31, 1814, in London, England. He joined a Wesleyan Methodist church in 1832, and became active in tract distribution. He preached his first sermon in 1835 in Illford, a London suburb at that time. In 1840 he became a London City Missionary in the Kingsland district, and continued service with the organization until 1849, when he moved to the United States. He had been baptized and united with a Baptist church in 1842.

In the States he was ordained pastor of a Free Baptist church in North Danville, Vt., in 1850. He held Free Baptist pastorates in Alton, N.H., Acton, Me., and Amesbury, Ma. In 1855 he affiliated with the American Baptist denomination and held the following pastorates: Acton, Me. (1856-1858), East Sumner, Me. (1858-1861), Damariscotta Mills, Me. (1861-1864), China, Me. (1864-1866), Antrim, N.H. (1866-1873), Plaistow, N.H. (1875-1877), and Goshen, N.H. (1877-1878).

He was active in Baptist work on the state level. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of New Hampshire Baptist Convention from 1866 until his death in 1910 and was secretary of the Convention 1878-1899. He was also treasurer and statistical secretary of the New Hampshire Baptist Ministers' Conference. Hurlin wrote a history of every New Hampshire Baptist church and prepared a brief biography of most ministers ever associated with the Convention. In addition he was a frequent contributor of articles to denominational journals.

He lived in Antrim the last 32 years of his life, and died there June 28, 1910.

Scope and Content

The William Hurlin Papers, 1849-1909, document the professional work of Hurlin. The collection is arranged according to the following categories: sermons, lectures, addresses, list of readings, unpublished literary manuscripts, scrapbooks of publications, and photographs.

Box 1

Sermons

list of sermons preached (numerical listing)

" " " " , 1840-1854, 1891

list of funeral sermons, 1850-1866, 1873-1876

Sermons are arranged in numerical order assigned by WH. When originally written, the numerical order was also chronological. However, the sermons in their present form are revisions of the earlier sermons. Therefore, the numerical order is no longer chronological. See the first list of sermons noted above for the original dates of the sermons.
