MISSION

The Ministry Resource Center brings together the study of theology and the practice of ministry. The Center serves congregations and agencies, their leaders, and the faculty, staff and students of Yale.

Through the Ministry Resource Center, persons are invited to:

- Consult on ideas and issues in ministry and useful resources for each location;
- Examine resources for ministry programs, community outreach, and pastoral and congregational care issues;
- Participate in workshops led by professionals in congregations' ministries;
- Explore print and audiovisual resources for all ages and occasions.

All are welcome to use the Ministry Resource Center collection, attend workshops, and consult with staff.

To borrow from the collection, we invite you to become a member of the Ministry Resource Center. Anyone with a Yale I.D. is automatically a member.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS FOR MEMBERS

- Borrow print resources, DVDs, and sound recordings.
- Keep resources as long as you need them by choosing your own due dates.
- Have resources shipped to you. Borrower is responsible for the shipping costs.

HOURS

Open when Yale Divinity Library is open. Ministry Resource Center staff is present and available for consultation Monday through Friday, 11:00 am– 4:00 pm. Staff will provide in-person, email or phone consultation for individuals and groups.
