A black four-shelf bookcase is filled with books, organized by subject. The top shelf features a book titled 'Jazz' with a black and white photo of a person, and a book with a yellow cover and black text. The second shelf has a book titled 'Images of Italy' with a collage of images, and a book with a red cover and black text. The third shelf has a book titled 'Architecture and the City' with a yellow cover, and a book with a green cover and black text. The bottom shelf has a book titled 'The Statue of Liberty' with a photo of the statue, and a book with a white cover and black text. The bookcase is set against a light-colored wall.

Books new to the Arts Library's general collection are featured to the left of the main desk on the first floor. We invite you to take a seat and explore! Circulating items are available to check out if you find something of interest. Staff members are available at the main desk for questions -- or email us [1].
