On the Boards now on your screen

February 10, 2015

On the Boards, a company founded in 1978 and based in Seattle, focuses on contemporary theater, dance, and performance. OntheBoards.tv is a database that brings together high-definition streaming videos of full-length performances by an international range of artists, including Young Jean Lee, Jan Fabre, and Teatro Línea de Sombra, professionally filmed and edited in collaboration with the artists in order to reach audiences around the world.

More suggestions about how to find videos of performances [1] are on the Drama LibGuide [2].

External link: http://web.library.yale.edu/arts/news/ontheboards [3]

Source URL:https://web.library.yale.edu/arts/news/ontheboards?page=3

Links
[1] http://guides.library.yale.edu/productionvideo/ [2] http://guides.library.yale.edu/drama/ [3] http://web.library.yale.edu/arts/news/ontheboards