

Open Access Images for Arts and Humanities

October 16, 2015

As part of Open Access Week at Yale [1] (10/19-10/24), Kress Fellow Alexandra Provo will be presenting "Open Access Images for Arts and Humanities [2]" on Monday, 10/19 at 12 in Bass L06.

The presentation will introduce ways to find open access images, particularly those cleared for publishing. Along the way, we will also touch on the types of things you can do with open access images (viewing, downloading, reproducing) as well as commonly-encountered image rights terminology (public domain, Creative Commons, and more).
