Warren Lehrer (MFA '80) to perform "A Life in Books" on December 9 at 6:30 pm

Free and open to the public.

In celebration of the current exhibition at the Haas Family Arts Library The Book As Stage: Performance and Theater in the Book Arts [1]

In conjunction with the Odds and Ends Art Book Fair [2] at the Yale University Art Gallery

Designer/author Warren Lehrer (MFA '80) will present a multimedia performance/reading of his award-winning illuminated novel A Life In Books: The Rise and Fall of Bleu Mobley [3]. In the funny and thought provoking performance, Lehrer presents an overview of his author-protagonist's life in books via many of Mobley's cover designs and other biographical materials including animations and video performances of book excerpts.

The performance will take place in the Yale University Art Gallery [4] lecture hall. Please enter via York or High
