Faculty, University of Chicago

Name: Ned

Age: 45

Location: University of Chicago

Department: English

Background

In the course of his research Ned discovers a Beinecke collection with material he needs through a Google search. He first wishes to speak with a curator to determine if the material in the collection is really what he thinks. After a discussion he determines that the collection does have material he wants and he would like to arrange a visit to the archives at Yale. To get the most use out of his visit, he wishes to order the material to be available for him to look at on a specific date.

Library Activities

- Searches Google for exposed Finding Aids
- Reviews Finding Aids to determine if collection is of interest
- Uses Aeon request forms to request materials for study
