A comparison of uniform titles and preferred titles

A comparison of uniform titles (AACR2) and preferred titles (RDA) for musical works

Language (6.14.2.5.1) [70]

In AACR2, when the initial title element was a type of composition, all foreign language forms of the name of that type were translated into the accepted English form when it had cognates in English, French, German, and Italian. In RDA, when the preferred title is a type of composition, the English form is used whenever the name of the type in another language is a cognate. Those forms of the name that are not cognates are used in the original language.

| AACR2: Movimenti, ‡m instrumental ensemble |
| RDA: Movements, ‡m organ, piano, recorders (2), flutes (2), clarinets (2), saxophone, violin, guitar, percussion, viola |

Trio sonatas

In AACR2 (25.29C1), the uniform title Trio sonata(s) was used for 17th- and 18th-century works for two treble instruments and continuo. This instruction was not carried over into RDA.

In RDA use:

- Trio(s) for 17th- and 18th-century works for two treble instruments and continuo with the title "Trio" (or cognates of it)
- Sonata(s) for 17th- and 18th-century works for two treble instruments and continuo with the “Sonata” (or cognates of it)
- Trio sonata(s) for 17th- and 18th-century works for two treble instruments and continuo with the title "Trio sonata" (or cognates of it)

Singular vs plural

In AACR2, it was unclear whether a title would be given in singular or plural form when a composer wrote two works of the same type and used a distinctive title for one of the works.

RDA makes explicit that the title of a type of composition should be recorded in the plural if the composer wrote more than one work of that type with the same title.

Statement of medium of performance

Medium

In AACR2, the medium was given according to the list in 25.30B4.

RDA LC-PCC PS 6.28.1.9.1: use LCMPT terms in the authorized access point, adjusting the form to plural if needed.

Number of elements

In AACR2, the number of elements that could be named in the statement of medium of performance was limited to three, except when the initial title element was "trio(s)", "quartet(s)", or "quintet(s)."

In RDA, more than three elements are allowed.
In AACR2, when two or more of a particular instrument or voice was required, the appropriated Arabic number in parentheses after the name of that instrument or voice unless the number is implicit in the initial title element.

In RDA, always add the number of parts in the authorized access point when there is more than one part for a particular instrument or voice.

Implied numbering

In AACR2, this is a distinctive title that requires the medium of performance to resolve a conflict.

Note that three individual percussion instruments are named, rather than using the term percussion.

In AACR2 and RDA until April 2014

In AACR2, when two or more of a particular instrument or voice was required, the appropriated Arabic number in parentheses after the name of that instrument or voice unless the number is implicit in the initial title element.

In RDA, always add the number of parts in the authorized access point when there is more than one part for a particular instrument or voice.

Standard chamber combinations

In AACR2 and RDA until April 2014, the following practice was applied to works for three to five instruments that fall into one of the standard combinations:

- Former practice: works for three to five instruments considered to be standard combinations followed the treatment outlined in the table below.

RDA: Vocalise, unaccompanied

Adding medium of performance to resolve conflicts

In AACR2 (25.31B1), statements of medium of performance were added to identical distinctive uniform titles for two or more different works by the same composer, except when the works were all for the same medium and medium of performance was insufficient to resolve the conflict. Some other element was added to render the uniform titles unique.

Some catalogers are interpreting RDA as saying medium of performance is included even when the works are all for the same medium.

AACR2: Petite suite ‡n (1889)
RDA: Petite suite ‡n (1889)

AACR2: Petite suite ‡n (1890)
RDA: Petite suite ‡n (1890)
The AACR2 and RDA practices are the same in this example.

AACR2: Petite suite, ‡n op. 169
RDA: Petite suite, ‡n op. 169
AACR2: Petite suite, ‡n op. 189

AACR2: Petite suite, ‡m guitar, ‡n op. 198
RDA: Petite suite, ‡m guitar, ‡n op. 198

The AACR2 and RDA practices differ in this example.

AACR2: Concert studies, ‡n op. 14, no. 1
RDA: Concert studies, ‡n op. 14, no. 1
AACR2: Concert study, ‡n op. 48, no. 2
RDA: Concert study, ‡n op. 48, no. 2, ‡r E?
In both AACR2 and RDA, when the only difference between two distinctive titles is that one is singular and the other is plural, they are considered to be identical.

Note that medium of performance as well as key was added to the second title.

Further additions

The order of further subfields in an authorized access point has changed from AACR2 to RDA:

Damian Iseminger, MOUG-L, 10/8/2014:
"Since Selections is considered a work element in RDA, it should be with the work subfields.

For the remaining additions, RDA prescribes no order, but several of us have advocated for using AACR2 order. Thus:
° Sketches,
° Arrangement,
° Vocal score(s),
° Chorus score(s),
° Language."

In other words
° Work subfields: t, m, n, r, k
° Expression subfields: o, s, l

Additions to access points representing musical works [16] (RDA 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11)

This applies to the following types of musical expression:

° arrangements, transcriptions, etc. (6.28.3.2)
° added accompaniments, etc. (6.28.3.3)
° sketches (6.28.3.4)
° vocal and chorus scores (6.28.3.5)

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS.

(6.28.3.2) Arrangements, transcriptions, etc.

(6.28.3.2.1) Arrangements of of “classical,” etc. music

Apply to an arrangement, transcription, etc., of one or more works of one composer (or of parts of one composer's works) if the arrangement, transcription, etc., falls into one or more of the following categories:

° arrangements, transcriptions, versions, settings, etc., in which music for one medium of performance has been rewritten for another
° simplified versions of previously existing musical works

Construct the access point for an arrangement, etc. of a work or part or parts of a work, broadly speaking, in the category of "serious," "classical," or "art" music:

° the authorized access point representing the original work (6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8 [15] and 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11 [16]) or part or parts of the work (6.28.2 [17]), as applicable
° the term arranged

Apply this instruction also to a transcription by the original composer.

Example:

Concertos, ‡m cello, orchestra, ‡n op. 104, ‡r B minor; ‡o arranged.

Published on Yale University Library (https://web.library.yale.edu)

LC-PCC PS: LC practice: When identifying an expression not already represented by a name authority record, do not add another characteristic to differentiate one such expression from another expression (e.g., do not differentiate one arrangement of Berlioz’ Corsaire from another arrangement). Other elements in LC’s bibliographic record (e.g., date, medium of performance) are available to the user for selecting a specific expression if desired; RDA 0.6.3 allows differentiating characteristics to be recorded as separate elements or as part of the authorized access points. If there is a name authority record with an authorized access point for an expression that includes an additional characteristic LC would not have added, use the form of the access point in that authority record; this action is consistent with the LC/PCC policy of using authorized access points in existing name authority records.

[6.28.3.2.2] Arrangements of of "popular" music

Construct the access point for an arrangement, etc. of a work or part or parts of a work, broadly speaking, in the category of music in the "popular" idiom (e.g., rock, jazz):

° the authorized access point representing the original work ([6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8][15] and [6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11][16]) or part or parts of the work ([6.28.2][17]), as applicable

° the term arranged

° only when the resource is

» an instrumental work arranged for vocal or choral performance

or

» a vocal work arranged for instrumental performance

[6.28.3.3] Added accompaniments, etc.

If an instrumental accompaniment or additional parts have been added to a work or part or parts of a work, use the authorized access point representing the original work ([6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8][15] and [6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11][16]) or part or parts of the work ([6.28.2][17]), as applicable

LC-PCC PS: LC practice:

° Do not add arranged to the preferred title for a musical work to which an accompaniment or other parts have been added with no alteration of the original music

° For notated music, classify the resource as an arrangement, assign subject headings for both the expanded and the original media of performance, and add "Arranged" to the subject heading for the expanded version.

[6.28.3.4] Sketches

Construct the authorized access point for a work or part or parts of a work consisting of a composer’s sketches by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the completed work

° the term Sketches following the preferred title for the whole work

[6.28.3.5] Vocal and chorus scores

Construct the authorized access point for a vocal score or a chorus score by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the original work ([6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8][15] and [6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11][16]) or part or parts of the work ([6.28.2][17])

° one of the following terms, as applicable: Vocal score(s) or Chorus score(s)

[6.28.3.6] Translations

When the text of a vocal work (or part or parts of a vocal work) is a translation or the texts of all the works in a compilation are translations:

construct the authorized access point by adding the name of the language to the authorized access point representing the work, part or parts, or compilation, as applicable. Record the name of the language by applying the instructions at 6.11.

If the resource described contains expressions of the work in more than one language, create access points for each of the language expressions.

LC-PCC PS: LC practice: If the resource described contains expressions of the same musical work in more than one language, identify an expression in a language different from that of the original expression by adding the name of the language in subfield $l$ to the authorized access point. When the original expression and one translation are in a compilation, give an analytical authorized access point for each expression. If a compilation contains the original expression and more than one translation, give analytical authorized access points for the original expression and at least one translation. See the LC-PCC PS for 6.27.3.:

Identify an expression in a language different from that of the original expression by adding the name of the language in subfield $l$ to the authorized access point for the work.

When the original expression and one translation are in a compilation, give an analytical authorized access point for each expression. If a compilation contains the original expression and more than one translation, give analytical authorized access points for the original expression and at least one translation.

Access points representing musical works (RDA 6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

See also Additions to access points representing musical works [16] (RDA 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.10)
Authorized access point representing a part or parts of a musical work [17] (RDA 6.28.2)
Access points representing musical expressions [18] (RDA 6.28.3)

An access point is a name, term, code, etc., under which information pertaining to a specific entity will be found. These instructions cover:

a. musical works with lyrics, libretto, text, etc. (6.28.1.2)
b. pasticcios, ballad operas, etc. (6.28.1.3)
c. works composed for choreographic movement (6.28.1.4)
d. adaptations of musical works (6.28.1.5)
e. operas and other dramatic works with new text and title (6.28.1.6)
f. cadenzas (6.28.1.7)
g. musical scores and incidental music for dramatic works, etc. (6.28.1.8)

These instructions do not cover:

° music that is officially prescribed as part of a liturgy
° librettos and other texts for musical works

LC-PCC PS: Do not make an addition to the authorized access point when one or more instrumental parts for a work or a compilation of works by one composer are published separately. Use the same authorized access point that would be used for a score or a complete set of parts.

Best practices for music cataloging [78]: Follow LC-PCC PS.

* Best practices for music cataloging [78]: Album compilations (audio recordings) can be candidates for category d only when the performer(s) associated with them are judged to be creators at the album level, thereby warranting the use of a 1XX field in the bibliographic record. The mere fact that a performer is prominently named in a resource is not sufficient justification for deeming that performer to be a creator, and thus the aggregate work to be a derivation subject to this rule. ...

[Apply this rule to album compilations according to the following criteria, regardless of genre:
1) Do all of the component works in the compilation meet the definition given in category d?
   and
2) Does the compilation as a whole constitute a distinct artistic creation of the performer(s)?
If the above criteria do not apply, and in cases of doubt, apply 6.27.1.4 and identify the album compilation by title.

(6.28.1.2) Musical works with lyrics, libretto, text, etc

For a musical work that includes words in the form of lyrics, a libretto, text, etc. (e.g., a song, opera, musical comedy), construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):
° the authorized access point representing the composer of the music
° the preferred title [6] for the work

* Libretto vs. lyrics:
Libretto = the words of an opera or other musical stage work, or an oratorio.
Lyrics = the words of a popular song, including a song or songs from a musical

Music Bibliographic Access Section (MBAS), Music Division, Library of Congress interim best practice to follow when encountering access points for operas, musicals, etc. for which the music and libretto is by the same creator:

Due to the intense retroactive BFM required by RDA instructions for creator access points of operas, musicals, etc. (6.27.1.2, 6.27.4.2, 6.28.1.2, 6.28.1.10, 6.28.3.5), MBAS, in consultation with PSD, has devised the following interim instructions for constructing and updating these access points. These directions illustrate how one group of catalogers is dealing with the issue; they are not necessarily directions for others to follow.

If the creator of an opera, musical, etc. is responsible for both music and libretto, do not follow the RDA instructions to differentiate access points for the music and for the libretto via qualifiers "(Opera)" and "(Libretto)." Instead, continue to structure and record these access points as under AACR2.

For newly created access points:
° follow AACR2 for structure
° do NOT code the authority record "rda"
° employ new MARC fields as applicable
° include 667 note reading: "This AACR2 1XX field should be used in RDA records pending a formal review of RDA instructions for composer-librettist authorized access points."

For unavoidable 1XX changes to existing access points:
° follow AACR2 for structure
° do NOT code the authority record "rda"
° employ new MARC fields as applicable
° include 667 note reading: "This AACR2 1XX field should be used in RDA records pending a formal review of RDA instructions for composer-librettist authorized access points."

The RDA instructions for authorized access points of this type will be reviewed by the RDA Music Joint Working Group. Should a change be desired, the Group will submit a change request to the JSC. It may also happen that North American constituencies agree to an LC-PCC PS addressing these instructions. Changes may involve different instructions for retrospective NARs vs. new authorities or may require changes in coding, e.g., recoding "‡s Libretto" to "‡p Libretto."

(6.28.1.4) Musical works composed for choreographic movement

For a musical work composed for choreographic movement, such as a ballet or pantomime, construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the composer of the music

° the preferred title [6] for the work

(6.28.1.5) Adaptations of Musical Works

For an adaptation that falls into one or more of the following categories:

° arrangements described as freely transcribed, based on, etc., and other arrangements incorporating new material

° paraphrases of various works or of the general style of another composer

° arrangements in which the harmony or musical style of the original has been changed

° performances of musical works involving substantial creative responsibility for adaptation, improvisation, etc., on the part of the performer or performers

° any other distinct alteration of another musical work.

In case of doubt about whether a work is an arrangement, etc., or an adaptation, treat it as an arrangement, etc. (6.28.3.2)

authorized access point:

one composer: construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the composer of the music

° the preferred title [6] for the work

two or more composers have collaborated: construct the authorized access point according to 6.27.1.3 (collaborative works) using

° the authorized access point representing the person with principal responsibility

° the preferred title [6] for the work

the adaptation is commonly cited by title: use the preferred title [6] for the adaptation as the authorized access point representing the work

(6.28.1.6) Operas and other dramatic works with new text and title

If the text, plot, setting, or other verbal element of a musical work is adapted or if a new text is supplied and the title has changed, construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the original work

° the title of the adaptation, enclosed in parentheses
(6.28.1.7) Cadenzas

Construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the composer of the cadenza
° the preferred title [6] for the cadenza

If the cadenza does not have its own title, devise a title by applying the instructions at 2.3.2.1 and 2.3.2.11 (Devised titles for music):

If the resource itself bears no title, and a title cannot be found in any of the other sources of information specified under 2.2.4 [81], devise a brief descriptive title that includes, as applicable:

° medium of performance,
° numeric designation (e.g., serial number, opus number),
° key,
° and/or other distinguishing characteristic.

(6.28.1.8) Music and incidental music for dramatic works, etc.

For music or incidental music composed for a dramatic work, film, etc., construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

° the authorized access point representing the composer of the music
° the preferred title [6] for the work

Additions to access points representing musical works (RDA 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11)

See also Access points representing musical works [15] (RDA 6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8)
Authorized access point representing a part or parts of a musical work [17] (RDA 6.28.2)
Access points representing musical expressions [18] (RDA 6.28.3)

These instructions cover additions to access points representing:

° musical works with titles that are not distinctive ° musical works with distinctive titles
° compilations of musical works

(6.28.1.9) Titles that are not distinctive

For a musical work with a preferred title [6] that consists solely of the name of a type of composition [82], or of two or more types, of composition, make one or more of the following elements, in this order:

° the medium of performance [10] (6.28.1.9.1),
° a numeric designation [11] (6.28.1.9.2),
° a key [12] (6.28.1.9.3)

Medium of performance:

Add the medium of performance (see 6.15 [10]) as applicable, in this order:

a) voices
b) keyboard instrument if there is more than one non-keyboard instrument
c) the other instruments in score order
d) continuo.

For a work for solo instrument or instruments and accompanying ensemble, add the terms for the solo instrument or instruments followed by the term for the accompanying ensemble

Exceptions:

a) Omit the medium of performance when one or more of the following conditions apply:

° i) the medium is implied by the title:

Title: choral prelude mass
overture
song, Lieder

...
symphony
° if in a "popular" idiom, solo voice or voices with instrumental and/or vocal accompaniment

» Barrière, Jean, ‡d 1707-1747. ‡t Sonatas, ‡n book 1 [for cello and continuo]
» Barrière, Jean, ‡d 1707-1747. ‡t Sonatas, ‡n book 6 [for harpsichord]

° ii) the work consists of a set of compositions for different media, or is one of a series of sets of compositions with the same title but for different media

» Barrière, Jean, ‡d 1707-1747. ‡t Sonatas, ‡n book 6 [for harpsichord]

° iii) the medium was not indicated by the composer

° iv) the medium of performance cannot be recorded succinctly and other elements are more useful for identifying the work (e.g., thematic index number or opus number)

b) If there is more than one part for a particular instrument or voice, add the number of parts:
   Duets, ‡m violins (2)
   Quartets, ‡m violin, violas (2), cello
   Septet, ‡m piano, flutes (2), violins (2), viola, cello
   Septet, ‡m piano, violins (3), viola, cellos (2)

   Serenade, ‡m piano, flute, percussion, violin, cello, double bass
   The percussion parts require 2 performers
   Divertimento, ‡m trumpets (6), horns (2), trombones (3), tuba, percussion
   The percussion parts require 3 performers

b) If there is more than one part for a particular instrument or voice, add the number of parts:

   The percussion parts require 2 performers
   Divertimento, ‡m trumpets (6), horns (2), trombones (3), tuba, percussion
   The percussion parts require 3 performers

d) Omit the designation of the key in which an instrument is pitched or terms indicating a range
e) Omit alternative or doubling instruments.
f) For an accompanying ensemble with one performer to a part, record the appropriate term for the ensemble (see 6.15.1.6) rather than the individual instruments.
g) Omit solo voices if the medium includes a chorus.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS: Interpret "one or more of the following" to mean "all of the following that are applicable and readily ascertainable."

Numeric designation:

In some cases, thematic index numbers are to be preferred to opus numbers. Consult Thematic indexes used in the Library of Congress/NACO authority file [83].
° For a quick list, see Work numbers for composers [19].

LC-PCC PS: Serial number:
Record a serial number if works with the same title and the same medium of performance are consecutively numbered in music reference sources.
Record serial number if works with the same title for different media are consecutively numbered in music reference sources if the medium of performance is omitted from the authorized access point per 6.28.1.9.1 exception a) ii)

When recording a serial number that is accompanied in the source by a term such as "number," "book," "collection," etc., apply the following:

If the term is the English word "number" or its abbreviation, or an equivalent word or abbreviation in another language:
   precede the number in the preferred title by the English abbreviation "no."

If the term is a non-English term not meaning "number" and the preferred title is in English:
   substitute the English equivalent of the term and use an English abbreviation if the non-English term is abbreviated, or the full form of the term if the non-English form is fully spelled out.
   give the term as it appears in the source.

In all other cases:
If no term appears with the number:
   give the number as a cardinal number and preceding it by

° Ordinal numerals:

(6.28.1.9.1) Additions for access points when medium of performance, etc. is insufficient, or not available

When the medium of performance, numeric designation, and key are not sufficient, or are not available, to distinguish between titles that are not distinctive, add one of the following elements (in this order of preference):
° the year of completion of composition (6.4 [84])
° the year of original publication (6.4 [84])

(6.28.1.10) Distinctive titles
Make additions to access points if needed to distinguish the access point from one that is the same or similar but represents a different work or represents a person, family, corporate body, or place. Add one of the following elements, using the same type of addition for each of the access points for different musical works with identical titles, in this order:
° the medium of performance [10] (6.15),
° another distinguishing characteristic [13] of the work (6.6)

(6.28.1.11) Additions to resolve conflict:
If the additions above are insufficient to resolve a conflict, add one or more of the following:
° a numeric designation [11] (6.16),
° a key [12] (6.17)
° the year of completion of composition (6.4 [84])
° the year of original publication (6.4 [84])
° any other identifying element, such as place of composition (6.6 [85]), or the name of the first publisher (6.6).

(6.28.1.11) Compilations of musical works
For a compilation containing works of one type, add the medium of performance to the access point, unless the medium is obvious or the works are for various media.

Access points representing musical expressions [18] (RDA 6.28.3)

(6.28.2.2) One part

Construct the authorized access point representing a part of a musical work by combining (in this order):
° the authorized access point representing the work as a whole (6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8 [15] and 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11 [16])
° the preferred title for the part (6.14.2.7)

(6.28.2.3) Two or more parts

When identifying two or more parts of a musical work, construct authorized access points for each of the parts. Apply the instructions at 6.14.2.7.1 [88].

Alternative:

When identifying two or more parts of a musical work, identify the parts collectively. Construct the authorized access point representing the parts by combining (in this order):
° the authorized access point representing the work as a whole (6.28.1 [15] and 6.14.2.7.2 alternative [89])
° the term Selections following the preferred title for the whole work.

that are consecutively numbered

Construct the authorized access point representing a part of a musical work by combining (in this order):
° the authorized access point representing the work as a whole (6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8 [15] and 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11 [16])
° the preferred title for the parts (6.14.2.7)

that are unnumbered or are non-consecutively numbered parts of a work

Alternative: When identifying two or more parts that are unnumbered or non-consecutively numbered, identify the parts collectively. Construct the authorized access point representing the parts by combining (in this order):
° the authorized access point representing the work as a whole (6.28.1.1-6.28.1.8 [15] and 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11 [16])
° the term Selections following the preferred title for the whole work.

LLC-PCC PS: LC practice for Alternative: Add Selections to the authorized access point representing the work as a whole.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow Alternative only if giving separate access points for the individual parts is not feasible.

(6.28.2.4) Two or more unnumbered parts designated by the same general term

If a part of a musical work is designated by the same general term as other parts and the part is unnumbered:
Add to the access point representing the part one or more of the identifying elements covered in the instructions at 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11 [16]
° Add as many as are necessary to distinguish the part.
  » If such additions are not appropriate, determine the number of the part in the set and add it

An access point is a name, term, code, etc., under which information pertaining to a specific entity will be found.

Collaborative works (RDA 6.27.1.3)
If two or more persons, families, or corporate bodies are collaboratively responsible for creating the work, construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

a) the authorized access point representing the person, family, or corporate body with principal responsibility

b) the preferred title for the work

Alternative: Construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

a) the authorized access points for all creators named either in resources embodying the work or in reference sources; include them in the order in which they are named in those sources; apply the guidelines and instructions at 9.19.1 for persons, 10.11.1 for families, or 11.13.1 for corporate bodies, as applicable

b) the preferred title for the work (see 6.2.2 (6.14 [6] for musical works)).

LC practice/PCC practice for Alternative: Do not apply the alternative.

Musical works. For collaborations between a composer and a lyricist, librettist, choreographer, etc., apply the instructions at 6.28.1.2 [91]–6.28.1.4 [92].

If two or more persons, families, or corporate bodies are represented as having principal responsibility for the work, construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

a) the authorized access point representing the first-named of those persons, families, or corporate bodies

b) the preferred title for the work (see 6.2.2 (6.14 [6] for musical works).

If principal responsibility for the work is not indicated, construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

a) the authorized access point representing the first-named person, family, or corporate body

b) the preferred title for the work (see 6.2.2 (6.14 [6] for musical works).

If there is no consistency in the order in which the persons, families, or corporate bodies responsible for the work are named either in resources embodying the work or in reference sources, construct the authorized access point representing the work by combining (in this order):

a) the authorized access point representing the person, family, or corporate body who is named first in the first resource received

b) the preferred title for the work (see 6.2.2 (6.14 [6] for musical works).

Compilations of works (RDA 6.27.1.4)

If the work is a compilation of works by different persons, families, or corporate bodies, construct the authorized access point representing the work by using the preferred title for the compilation.

If the compilation lacks a collective title, construct separate access points for each of the works in the compilation.

Alternative: Construct an authorized access point representing the compilation by using a devised title (2.3.2.11 [93]). Construct this access point instead of, or in addition to, access points for each of the works in the compilation.

LC practice/PCC practice for Alternative: Generally, do not apply the alternative.

Best practices for music cataloging [720]: In authority records for works, give place of origin of the work in 370 [721] ‡g if readily ascertainable. Give country or local place within a country, as appropriate.

Recording date, language, and other distinguishing characteristics of expression (RDA 6.10-6.11)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

Note: this page was created with music cataloging in mind.

Date of expression (6.10) | Language of expression (6.11) | Other distinguishing characteristic of the expression (6.12)

(6.10) Date of expression
Date of work is the earliest date associated an expression.
If the date of expression is not known, treat the date of the earliest manifestation embodying the expression as the date of expression.

(6.10.1.2) Sources of information
Take information on date of work from any source.

(6.10.1.3) Recording date of expression
Record the date of the expression in terms of the calendar preferred by the agency creating the data.

LC-PCC PS: LC practice: Record dates in terms of the Gregorian calendar.
Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS.
Record the date of the expression by giving the year or years alone unless a more specific date is needed to distinguish one expression from another expression.
Record date of expression as a separate element, as part of an access point, or as both.
For instructions on recording date of work as part of authorized access points representing musical works, see 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.10 [16].
Indicate the source of information by applying the instructions at 5.8.1.3.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Generally do not record date of expression in a 046 field, in either bibliographic or authority records. In bibliographic records for scores, the date of expression can be inferred from the date of publication and/or copyright date. In bibliographic records for sound recordings, date of expression is equivalent to date of capture [7.11.3].

(6.11) Language of expression
Language of expression is a language in which a work is expressed.

(6.11.1.2) Sources of information
Take information on language of expression from any source.

(6.11.1.3) Recording language of expression
Record the language or languages of the expression using an appropriate term or terms in a language preferred by the agency creating the data. Select terms from a standard list of names of languages, if available.
Preferred titles
Published on Yale University Library (https://web.library.yale.edu)

LC-PCC PS:

Form of Language Names
When recording the language of expression, base the name of the language on the form found in the current edition of MARC Code List for Languages [722] (and the updates [723]).

Note the following when using the code list:
1. Use the name found in boldface type.
2. Use the name for a specific language rather than the name of a language group.
3. Do not include parenthetical dates that appear with the name.
4. Retain other parenthetical qualifiers that appear with the name.
5. For the early form of a modern language that is found in an inverted form, use the early form in direct order within parentheses following the modern language.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS.
Record language of expression as a separate element, as part of an access point, or as both.
For instructions on recording language of expression as part of the authorized access point, see 6.27.3
For instructions on recording language of expression as part of authorized access points representing expressions of musical works, see 6.28.3.6.
Indicate the source of information by applying the instructions at 5.8.1.3.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]:
Routinely record language for the following linguistic content:
- Text underlying printed music (scores) (008/35-35, 041 ‡a)
- Sung or spoken text (sound recordings) (008/35-35, 041 ‡d)
- Text presented separately (e.g., librettos) (041 ‡e)
- Subtitles (041 ‡j)
- Language of accompanying text (e.g., critical commentary, program notes) (041 ‡g)

If readily ascertainable, also record:
- Original language of printed, sung or spoken text (041 ‡h)
- Original language of text presented separately (e.g., librettos) (041 ‡n)
- Original language of accompanying text (‡m)

Optionally, explain the language content in a 546 field (for primary language content) and/or a 500 field (for accompanying text), if deemed useful for identification and access.

(6.11.1.4) Expressions involving more than one language
If a single expression of a work involves more than one language, record each of the languages.

(6.12) Other distinguishing characteristic of the expression
Other distinguishing characteristic of the expression is a characteristic other than content type, language of expression, or date of expression. It serves to differentiate an expression from another expression of the same work.
For additional instructions on other distinguishing characteristics of expressions of musical works, see 6.18 [13].

(6.12.1.2) Sources of information
Take information on other distinguishing characteristics of the expression from any source.

(6.12.1.3) Recording language of expression
Record other distinguishing characteristics of the expression as separate elements, as parts of access points, or as both. For instructions on recording other distinguishing characteristics of the expression as part of the authorized access point, see 6.27.3.
Indicate the source of information by applying the instructions at 5.8.1.3.

(6.12.1.4) Selected parts or excerpts
Record Selections to identify an expression consisting of selected parts or excerpts from a larger work.

Recording form of work (RDA 6.3)
Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

Note: this page was created with music cataloging in mind.

(6.3) Form of work
Use in conjunction with Best practices for music cataloging using RDA and MARC 21 [724], MLA’s Best practices for using LCGFT for music resources [725], and MARC 380 [726] field (Form of work).
Form of work is a class or genre to which a work belongs.

(6.3.1.2) Sources of information
Take information on form of work from any source.

(6.4.1.3) Recording form of work
Record form of work as a separate element, as part of an access point, or as both.

Best practices for music cataloging [724]: If giving form of work as a component of an access point [15] (i.e., preferred titles consisting of the name of one or more type of composition [2]), routinely also record form of work in a 380 [726] field.
For other works, record form of work separately in a 380 field if readily ascertainable.
Prefer controlled vocabulary such as Library of Congress Genre/Form Terms for Library (LCGFT) (See Commonly used music terms in the Library of Congress Genre/Form Terms [727].

For consistency, capitalize the first term.

When terms do not come from a controlled vocabulary, use the singular form.

Do not record in a 380 field types of composition [2] terms that are:
° terms indicating a number of performers (e.g. Duets)
° tempo markings (e.g., Allegros)
° other generic terms that do not convey formal characteristics (e.g., Pieces, Music).

Recording key for musical works (RDA 6.17)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

See also The names of keys in French, German, Italian, and Spanish [728]

Record the key if one or more of the following conditions applies:
° it is commonly identified in reference sources
° it appears in the composer's original title or the title proper of the first manifestation
° it is apparent from the resource described (unless it is known to be transposed in the resource).

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: If giving key as a component of an access point, routinely also give key in a 384 [729] field. For other works, give key separately in a 384 field if readily ascertainable.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow the same criteria for recording the mode ("major" or "minor") as for recording the pitch center; that is, if pitch center is given or apparent, but mode is not, record only the pitch center. Record the symbols ? and ? rather than the words "sharp" and "flat."

Recording medium of performance for musical works (RDA 6.15)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

Changes to this document that reflect recent updates to RDA are in process but are not complete
Medium of performance is the instrument, instruments, voice, voices, etc., for which a musical work was originally conceived.

Instrumental music: one performer to a part | Individual instruments | Accompanying ensembles with one performer to a part | Music for orchestra, string orchestra, or band | One or more solo instruments and accompanying ensemble | Vocal music: Solo voices | Choruses | Accompaniment for songs, Lieder, etc. | Indeterminate/unspecified medium

(6.15.1.2) Sources of information
Take information on medium of performance from any source.

(6.15.1.3) Recording medium of performance
Record the medium of performance by applying these instructions, as applicable:

- Instrumental music intended for one performer to a part (6.15.1.4)
- Instruments (6.15.1.5)
- Accompanying ensembles with one performer to a part (6.15.1.6)
- Instrumental music for orchestra, string orchestra, or band (6.15.1.7)
- One or more solo instruments and accompanying ensemble (6.15.1.8)
- Solo voices (6.15.1.9)
- Choruses (6.15.1.10)
- Indeterminate medium of performance (6.15.1.11).

Record medium of performance as a separate element, as part of an access point, or as both. For instructions on recording medium of performance as part of the authorized access point, 6.28.1.9-6.28.1.11.

If there is more than one part for a particular instrument or voice, record the number of parts.

Exception:
If the term percussion is used (6.15.1.4), record the number of players if there is more than one.

Use continuo for a thorough bass part whether it is named as basso, basso continuo, figured bass, thorough bass, or continuo, and whether the individual instrument or instruments of the continuo are specified or not.

For guidelines on recording details about the medium of performance, apply the instructions for medium of performance of musical content at 7.21.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: If giving the medium of performance as a component of an access point, routinely also give medium of performance in a 382 [730] field. For other works, give medium of performance in a 382 [730] field if readily ascertainable.

Instrumental music

(6.15.1.4) Instrumental music intended for one performer to a part
Record each instrument by applying the instructions at 6.15.1.5 and 6.15.1.11.

Exceptions:
- If there is more than one percussion instrument, and the names of the individual instruments are not specified by the composer in the original title, use percussion.
- If the medium includes a continuo part, record the name of the part (6.15.1.3)
- If the medium includes instruments acting as an accompanying ensemble, record a term for the accompanying ensemble (6.15.1.6)

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: There is no limit to the number of medium elements recorded, either as components of access points or in 382 [730] fields.

(6.15.1.5) Instruments

When recording an individual type of instrument, use a term in a language preferred by the agency creating the data whenever possible.

LC-PCC PS: Use a term in English whenever possible.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS

Descriptive Cataloging Manual (DCM) Z1, 382, Medium of performance: Best practice: Record the medium of performance using RDA terminology when available.

If a required term is not listed in RDA, use a term from a controlled vocabulary, such as LCSH.

Use the following list of terms as a guide:

- cello or violoncello (LC-PCC PS: LC practice: cello)
° cor anglais or English horn (LC-PCC PS: LC practice: English horn)
° double bass (not bass viol or contrabass)
° double bassoon or contrabassoon (LC-PCC PS: LC practice: contrabassoon)
° harpsichord (not cembalo or virginal)
° horn (not French horn)
° kettle drums or timpani (LC-PCC PS: LC practice: timpani)
° viol (for sizes of viola da gamba other than bass)
° viola da gamba (not bass viol or gamba)
° viols (for viols of different sizes)

LC-PCC PS: Use the following instrument names: cello, English horn, contrabassoon, timpani.

LC-PCC PS: LC practice: In applying RDA 6.15.1.5, if a composer wrote works for or including various keyboard stringed instruments such as harpsichord, piano, or clavichord, use the one that predominates in the composer's works of a given type of composition in all preferred titles for works of that type. If no predominant instrument is apparent, use the term "keyboard instrument" in the medium of performance element.

6.15.1.5.1: Number of hands:
For one instrument, specify the number of hands if other than two:
- piano, 1 hand
- piano, 3 hands
- keyboard instrument, 4 hands
- marimba, 8 hands
For two or more keyboard or mallet (marimba, vibraphone, xylophone, etc.) instruments, specify the number of hands if other than two per instrument.
- piano (2), 3 hands
- pianos (2), 8 hands

6.15.1.5.2: Pitch and range of instruments:
If considered important for identification and access, record the designation of key in which an instrument is pitched and/or terms indicating the range of an instrument.

Optional omission:
- a) the designation of the key in which an instrument is pitched
- b) terms indicating a range alto, tenor, bass, etc.
  » Best practices for music cataloging [77]: If deemed useful for identification and access, give specific ranges of instruments, etc. in a note

6.15.1.5.3: Alternative instruments:
Record the names of alternative instruments.

6.15.1.5.4: Doubling instruments:
Record the names of doubling instruments.

Optional omission:
- Omit doubling instruments.

Examples:
- violins (2), viola, cello
- strings
- piano, violin, viola, cello
- horns (2), violin, viola, cello
- timpani, tom-tom, snare drum
- bassoon, violin, viola, cello
- piano, flute, clarinet, marimba, violin, cello
- flute, harp, violin, viola, cello
- piano, flutes (2), clarinets (2), oboes (2), horns (2), trombones (2), bassoons (2), trumpets (2)
- harpsichord, Jew's harp, violin, viola, cello
- piano, flute, oboe, clarinet, horn, trumpet, trombone, percussion, violin, viola, cello, double bass
- celesta, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, horn, trumpet, harp, violin, viola, cello, double bass
- Celesta is considered a keyboard instrument and is given first
- organ, trumpets (4), horns (4), trombones (4), baritone, tuba, timpani, percussion, harp
- flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, horn, trumpet, violin, viola, cello, double bass
- flute, oboe, saxophone, bassoon, horn, trumpet, trombone, percussion, harp, violin, viola, cello, double bass
- flutes (8), oboes (6), clarinets (6), bassoons (6), horns (6), trumpets (6), trombones (6), tuba, timpani, percussion
celesta, harpsichord, piano, piccolo, flute, oboe, clarinets (3), English horn, saxophone, bassoon, contrabassoon, trumpets (3), trombones (2), flügelhorn, horns (2), baritone, tuba, glockenspiel, harp

Accompanying ensembles with one performer to a part

For an accompanying ensemble with one performer to a part, record the appropriate term for the instrument or family of instruments followed by the word ensemble.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The ensemble consists of:</th>
<th>Record:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>the same instrument or from the same family of instruments</td>
<td>record the appropriate term for the instrument or family of instruments followed by the word ensemble</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>instruments from two or more families of instruments</td>
<td>instrumental ensemble when a more specific term is not available</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Alternative: For an accompanying ensemble with one performer to a part, record the appropriate term for each instrument of the accompanying ensemble instead of the name of the ensemble.

Instrumental music for orchestra, string orchestra, or band

Record an appropriate term from the following list:

- orchestra (use for both full or reduced (chamber) orchestra)
- string orchestra
- band

Don't list the individual instruments.

Disregard continuo when it is part of an orchestra or string orchestra.

The Library of Congress Medium of Performance Thesaurus for Music [731] (LCMPT) gives scope notes for "orchestra" and "string orchestra":

- orchestra: a large ensemble consisting of bowed string instruments and some combination of wind and other types of instruments, or such an ensemble whose relative size is not specified. For a small orchestra so specified, use chamber orchestra.
  - Keep in mind that the terms in the LCMPT are intended to be used in field 382 of MARC 21 bibliographic records, and not necessarily in the medium of performance of authorized access points. "Chamber orchestra" is not used in authorized access points.
- string orchestra: an orchestra consisting solely or primarily of string instruments.
  - Use "string orchestra" even when there are keyboard, percussion, and/or plucked instruments. It is the presence of one or more wind instruments that would define the ensemble as an orchestra.

One or more solo instruments and accompanying ensemble

Record the term for the solo instrument or instruments and the term for the accompanying ensemble, in that order.

- For the solo instrument(s), follow 6.15.1.4-6.15.1.5 and 6.15.1.11
- For the accompanying ensemble, see 6.15.1.6-6.15.1.7

LC-PCC PS: For an accompanying ensemble that has only one performer to a part, use the word "ensemble" preceded by the appropriate qualifying term (e.g., "string ensemble," "jazz ensemble," "wind ensemble") in the part of the medium of performance element that follows the solo instruments.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS.

Solo voices

Record an appropriate term from the following list to identify a type of solo voice:

- soprano
- mezzo-soprano
- alto
- tenor
- baritone
- bass
- other terms as appropriate (e.g., bass-baritone, countertenor)

If no specific voice types or ranges can be ascertained for two or more solo voices of different ranges, record an appropriate term from the following list:

- mixed solo voices
Preferred titles

* men's solo voices
* women's solo voices
* other terms as appropriate (e.g., children's solo voices)

For compositions that include solo voice(s) with chorus, record only the appropriate terms for the chorus (6.15.1.10) and the accompaniment, if any.

(6.15.1.10) Choruses

Record an appropriate term from the following list to identify a type of choral ensemble (two or more performers to a part):

* mixed voices
* women's voices
* men's voices
* unison voices
* other terms as appropriate (e.g., children's voices)

> Best practices for music cataloging [77]: other commonly used terms: equal voices, treble voices

(6.15.1.11) Accompaniment for songs, Lieder, etc.

If:

* the work is not in a "popular" idiom

and

* the preferred title for the work consists solely of the name of a type, or of two or more types, of composition for solo voice (e.g., Lieder, Mélodie, Songs)

and

* the voice is accompanied by anything other than a keyboard stringed instrument alone, record the name of the accompanying instrument(s) or ensemble (following 6.15.1.3 to 6.15.1.9), followed by the word accompaniment.

Examples:
- flute accompaniment
- violin, piano accompaniment
- flute, electronics accompaniment
- piano, clarinet, viola accompaniment
- clarinet, viola, cello accompaniment
- violins (2), cello accompaniment
- orchestra accompaniment

RDA doesn't cover what to do when the voice and instruments are equal in the ensemble. Current practice is to name all the instruments (following 6.15.1.3 to 6.15.1.6) but don't add the word accompaniment.

Examples:
- high voice, flute, oboe, vibraphone, violin, cello
- medium voice, violin, piano
- voice, flutes (2), clarinet, trombone, violin, viola, cellos (2)

If such a work is not accompanied, record unaccompanied.

(6.15.1.13) Indeterminate medium of performance

If the specific medium of performance, or any part of it, is not stated in the resource or other source, record that part of the medium of performance as follows, in this order of priority:

RDA Medium indicated by the composer or available from any other source:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>6.15.1.1</th>
<th>one family of instruments or voices the family, collective term, etc.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>(6.15.1.10), or a collective term for other media</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.15.1.1</td>
<td>only the range or general type of instrument or voice the range or type</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>orchestra and 6.15.1.4-6.15.1.12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.15.1.1</td>
<td>some parts of the medium are indicated the individual parts of the medium as instructed at 6.15.1.4-6.15.1.12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Recording numeric designation for musical works (RDA 6.16)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

Use in conjunction with Best practices for music cataloging [732] and MARC 383 [733]. The numeric designation of a musical work is a serial number, opus number, or thematic index number assigned to a musical work by a composer, publisher, or a musicologist.

(6.16.1.2) Sources of information

Take information on numeric designations of musical works from any source.

(6.16.1.3) Recording numeric designations

Record as many of the following numeric designations of musical works as can readily be ascertained. Use the following abbreviations found in appendix B.5.4:

- number, in any language: n., no, no., Nr.
- opus: opus

Use inclusive numbering for an aggregate work that is identified by consecutive serial numbers or thematic index numbers in music reference sources and/or thematic indexes [22].

Record numeric designations of musical works as separate elements, as parts of access points, or as both. For instructions on recording a numeric designation of a musical work as part of the authorized access point, see 6.28.1.9 [734]-6.28.1.10 [735].

Best practices for music cataloging [732]: If giving numeric designation as a component of an access point, routinely also give that numeric designation in 383 [733] field. For all works, give all numeric designations that are readily ascertainable in separate 383 [733] fields.

(6.16.1.3.1) Serial number

Record:

- the serial number

For works

- with the same title and same medium of performance are consecutively numbered in music reference sources
- different works in a consecutively numbered series have different forms of numeric designation, or different words introducing the number

and

- the different forms or words are in the same sources from which the numeric designations for the individual works are taken

LC-PCC PS: For a serial number that is accompanied in the source by a term such as "number," "book," "collection," etc., apply the following:

(Best practices for music cataloging [736]: Follow LC-PCC PS)

Term:

- the term is the English word "number" or its abbreviation, the number in the preferred title by the English preceded by the abbreviation "no."
Preferred titles

the preferred title is in English: English abbreviation if the non-English term is abbreviated, or the full form of the term if the non-English form is fully spelled out.
In all other cases: the term as it appears in the source.
If no term appears with the number: the number as a cardinal number and precede it by the English abbreviation "no."
° use Arabic numerals

(6.16.1.3.2) Opus number
Record the opus number, if any, and the number within the opus, if any.
° Best practices for music cataloging [737]: use "op.", "no.", and Arabic numerals
If there is a conflict in opus numbering among works of the same title and medium or
If the overall opus numbering of a composer's works is confused and conflicting
Add to the opus number the name of the publisher originally using the number chosen.
° add the publisher's name in parentheses

(6.16.1.3.3) Thematic index number
In the case of certain composers, record the number assigned to a work in a recognized thematic index [22].
Precede the number by.
° the initial letter or letters of the musicologist's name (e.g., K. 453)
or
° a generally accepted abbreviation (e.g., BWV 232).

WoO (Werke ohne Opus) numbers should also be taken from a recognized thematic index.

LC-PCC PS: A bibliography of thematic indexes used in the Library of Congress/NACO Authority File [83]
See also Work numbers for composers [19]
Best practices for music cataloging [738]: Follow LC-PCC PS. Note that there is no restriction on thematic index numbers that may be used in variant access points or 383 [733] fields.

Recording other distinguishing characteristics of the expression of musical works (RDA 6.18)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

Arrangements, transcriptions, etc. (6.18.1.4) | Sketches (6.18.1.5) | Vocal and choruses scores (6.18.1.6)
A distinguishing characteristic serves to differentiate an expression of a musical work from another expression of the same work (e.g., an arrangement, sketches, vocal score).

(6.18.1.2) Sources of information
Take information on other distinguishing characteristics of the expression of a musical work from any source.

(6.18.1.3) Recording other distinguishing characteristics of the expression Best practices for music cataloging, draft: If giving other distinguishing characteristic as a component of an access point, routinely also give other distinguishing characteristic in a 381 [739] field.

(6.18.1.4) Arrangements, transcriptions, etc.
Record the word arranged to one or more works, or to parts of one or more works, of one composer that are:
° "serious," "classical," or "art" music (broadly speaking)
° and are
   » arrangements, transcriptions, versions, settings, etc., in which music for one medium of performance has been rewritten for another medium and/or
   » simplified versions of previously existing musical works.
   » arranged, transcribed, etc. by the composer or by someone else
° in the “popular” idiom (e.g., rock, jazz) (broadly speaking)
  ° only if the expression is either
    » an instrumental work arranged for vocal or choral performance
    or
    » a vocal work arranged for instrumental performance

From the LC-PCC PS: The following are not to be considered arrangements:
° Revisions by the original composer:
  • ° if a composer revises a work, retaining the original title and opus number, and the revision is one of a different instrumentation within the same broad medium (e.g., orchestra, instrumental ensemble, band), do not consider the revision to be an arrangement. Use the same authorized access point for the original and the revision.

° Alternative instruments:
  • ° a work composed before 1800 for a baroque, renaissance, or other early instrument (viola da gamba, recorder, etc.), or for voice, in a resource that is edited for or performed on a modern instrument or as an alternative voice part provided the key is unchanged and the notation has not been significantly changed.
  • ° a work for a melody instrument originally written for one or more alternative instruments or separately published for one or more alternative instruments in the first or other early editions, for a work with a non-distinctive title, record a preferred title for one of the alternatives and provide an addition to the preferred title for the other version(s)
    ◦ When the preferred title for such a revision is non-distinctive, record a preferred title for one of the alternatives and provide an addition to the preferred title for the other version(s):
      ▪ Brahms, Johannes, ‡d 1833-1897.
      Sonatas, ‡m clarinet, piano, ‡n op. 120, ‡n no. 1 (Viola)

° Added accompaniments:
  • ° a work to which an accompaniment or other parts have been added with no alteration of the original music.
    ◦ ° However, for notated music, classify the resource as an arrangement, assign subject headings for both the expanded and the original media of performance, and add "Arranged" to the subject heading for the expanded version.

° Song transpositions:
  • ° one or more songs transposed to accommodate a voice range different from the original.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Follow LC-PCC PS.

(6.18.1.5) Sketches
If the expression consists of a composer's sketches for one or more musical compositions, record Sketches.

(6.18.1.6) Vocal and choruses scores
If the expression is a vocal score or a chorus score, record Vocal score(s) or Chorus score(s) as applicable. Vocal score
Chorus score

Recording preferred titles for musical works (RDA 6.14)
Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

For general instructions, see Recording titles of works [5] (RDA 6.2.1)

The preferred title (RDA 6.2.2) for a musical work is ° the basis for the authorized access point representing that work.

Sources of information (6.14.2.2) | Choosing the preferred title (6.14.2.3)

Recording the preferred title for:

Works created after 1500: Determine the title to be used as the preferred title from resources embodying the work or from reference sources
Works created before 1500: Determine the title to be used as the preferred title from modern reference sources.
If the evidence of modern reference sources is inconclusive, use (in this order of preference):
° modern editions
° early editions

(6.14.2.3) Choosing the preferred title for a musical work

Choose the composer's original title in the language in which it was presented.

Exceptions:
° Better known: If the work has become better known by another title in the same language, choose it as the preferred title (see also 6.2.2.4–6.2.2.5).
° Long title: If the title is very long, choose (in this order of preference)
» a brief title by which the work is commonly identified in reference sources
» a brief title devised by the cataloger.
° Numbered sequence: Use the name of the type of composition [82] as the preferred title if:
» all the titles of a composer's works include the name of a type of composition
and
» the works are also cited as a numbered sequence of compositions of that type.

(6.14.2.4) Recording the preferred title for a musical work

When recording the title chosen according to 6.14.2.3, omit from the title:
° a statement of medium of performance (even if such a statement is part of a compound word, provided that the resulting word or words is the name of a type of composition)
° key
° serial, opus, and thematic index numbers
° numbers (unless they are an integral part of the title)
° date of composition
° adjectives and epithets not part of the original title of the work

See also general guidelines for on recording a title [740]
Examples:

n 2013020654

Cinq sonates & un divertissement
Remove number: Cinq sonates & un divertissement
What remains:: Sonates & un divertissement

The placement of the generic information ahead of the distinctive portion does not mean all of the title (statement of medium included) should be retained.

Quatuor à cordes "Ainsi la nuit" remove medium of performance: Quatuor à cordes "Ainsi la nuit"
What remains is: Quatuor "Ainsi la nuit"

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: For pre-twentieth century works, normally consider phrases such as "a due," "a cinque" to be statements of medium of performance and not part of the title as defined in this rule.

For pre-twentieth century works with titles such as Duo concertant, Quartetto concertante (but not titles naming a form, such as Sinfonia concertante, Rondeau concertant, etc.), consider the word "concertant" or its equivalent to be an adjective or epithet not part of the original title of the work, and omit it from the preferred title.

(6.14.2.5) Preferred title consisting solely of the name of one type of composition

If the application of 6.14.2.3-6.14.2.4 results in a preferred title consisting solely of the name of one type of composition [82], record:

° the accepted form of that name in a language preferred by the agency creating the data.
° in the plural unless the composer wrote only one work of the type.

LC-PCC PS: Language: Record the accepted form of name in English if the name has an English cognate form or if the same name is used in English.

However: For works intended for concert performance called étude, fantasia, or sinfonia concertante or their cognates, record the form of the name in the original language.

RDA does not indicate how to determine whether one of these works is intended for concert performance or for strictly instructional purposes.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]:

° When a composer uses a word that is normally the name of a type of composition as the title of a work that is definitely not a work of the type designated by the word, do not consider the title to be the name of a type of composition.
° A title consisting of two words, each of which alone would be the name of a type of composition, may in combination produce a distinctive title. Generally treat such a compound title as a distinctive title.

Singular vs. plural:

6.14.2.5.2: Record the accepted form of the name of the type of composition [82] in the singular form unless the composer wrote more than one work of that type with the same title.

LC-PCC PS:

Singular vs. plural: The medium of performance is a separate element from the preferred title. If the composer wrote one piano sonata and one violin sonata, consider that the composer wrote two sonatas, and therefore the plural form for the type of composition must be used as the preferred title.

When cataloging the first occurrence of a work of a particular type of composition by a composer, choose the preferred title as follows:

If the composer is deceased consult reference sources to ascertain whether the composer wrote more than one work of that type; use the singular or plural form as the preferred title according to the information found.

If the composer is living choose the singular form of the type of composition as the preferred title unless the work being cataloged bears a serial number (including 1); in that case use the plural form on the assumption that the composer has written or intends to write more works of that type.

When cataloging the second occurrence of a work of a particular type by a composer, if the singular form has been used in the authorized access point for the first work of that type, revise the preferred title to the plural.

LC-PCC PS: for both 6.14.2.5 and 6.28.1:

Mélodie/Mélodies; Melody/Melodies

When choosing the preferred title for a work for solo voice and keyboard stringed instrument having the French title "Mélodie" or "Mélodies," do not translate those titles into English as "Melody" or "Melodies" because the cognate words in English and other languages do not have the same meaning as the French words. Consider the medium of performance to be implied by the French title (6.28.1.9 [734]) and do not add medium of performance in the authorized access point.

When choosing the preferred title for a work for solo voice with accompaniment other than a keyboard stringed instrument alone or without accompaniment having the French title "Mélodie" or "Mélodies," do not translate the title into English. Apply RDA 6.28.1.9 and add the medium of performance of the accompaniment, or "unaccompanied," in the authorized access point.

When the English word "Melody" or "Melodies," or their cognates in another language (including French), is the title of a work that is not for solo voice and keyboard stringed instrument, consider it the name of a type of composition. Use the English form as the preferred title and add the medium of performance according to 6.28.1.9 [734].

Liturgical words or phrases

When the preferred title is a Latin liturgical word or phrase (e.g., "Gloria," "Salve Regina," "Te Deum")

° record it in the singular
Exception: Use the plural form "Magnificats," "Masses," or "Requiems" when appropriate.

Generally, do not add the medium of performance in the authorized access point.

Best practices for music cataloging (77): Follow LC-PCC PS. Consult the alphabetical list at Types of Composition for Use in Authorized Access Points for Music (82) to determine whether the title in question meets the condition of the rule. Do not consider such titles as "Double concerto," "Tripelkonzert," etc. to be names of types of compositions.

When a composer uses a word which is normally the name of a type of composition as the title of a work which is definitely not a work of the type designated by the word, do not consider the title to be the name of a type of composition.

A title consisting of two words, each of which alone would be the name of a type of composition, may in combination produce a distinctive title. Generally treat such a compound title as a distinctive title.

(6.14.2.6) Duets

Record Duets for works variously titled duos, duets, etc.

(6.14.2.7) Recording the preferred title for a part or parts of a musical work

One part (6.14.2.7.1) Follow the instructions for recording the preferred title for a musical work (6.14.2.4) and the following:

Two or more parts (6.14.2.7.2): record the preferred titles of the parts applying the instructions given under 6.2.2.9.1: Record the preferred title for the part by applying the basic instructions at 6.2.1 [5].

Examples:

No. 4

Preferred title for a part of Franz Schubert's Impromptus, piano, D. 899 in a compilation also including No. 2 of the same work

If a composer assembles a group of excerpts from a larger work and calls the group suite, record that word as the designation for the part

Alternative: When identifying two or more parts of a work, instead of (or in addition to) recording the preferred title for each of the parts, record the conventional collective title Selections as the preferred title for the parts unless the parts form a group called suite by the composer.

(6.14.2.8) Compilations of musical works

This rule is used for a compilation of works that is not known by a title used in resources embodying that compilation or in reference sources.

If a compilation of musical works has become known by a title through use in resources embodying that compilation or in reference sources, apply the instructions at 6.2.2.4-6.2.2.5.

For other compilations, record the preferred title for a compilation that consists of, or purports to be, the complete musical works or complete works for a broad or specific medium in various or a single type by a composer by applying the instructions below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>RDA Type of compilation:</th>

<tr>

<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If none of the above is appropriate, record an appropriate specific collective title.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Use only those conventional collective titles given as examples

Apply the instructions given under 6.14.2.8.5.

| 6.14.2.8. Complete works for one specific medium | one of the following conventional collective titles: |
| * in a single type | ° Brass music |
| ° Orchestra music |
| ° Piano music |
| ° Piano music, 4 hands |
| ° Piano music, pianos (2) |
| ° String quartet music |
| ° Violin, piano music |

If none of the above is appropriate, record an appropriate specific collective title.

LC-PCC PS: For a collection of popular songs by a composer such as George Gershwin or Cole Porter, normally use the conventional collective title "Songs. Selections" regardless of whether some of the songs may have originally been intended for theatrical productions. If, however, the resource being cataloged provides clear evidence that all the songs in the compilation are from larger works of a single type of composition, use the authorized form of the type as the basis of the conventional collective title (e.g., "Musicals. Selections").

° Concertos
° Musicals ° Operas
° Polonaises
° Quartets
° Sonatas

° Symphonies

If none of the above is appropriate, record an appropriate specific collective title.

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: To the extent possible, use names of types of compositions given in Types of Composition for Use in Authorized Access Points for Music [82]. If none of those is suitable, use an appropriate a genre/form term (e.g., Motion picture music, Incidental music). As the RDA examples show, use an English-language form if one is available.

6.14.2.8. Compilation corresponding to one of the categories above and the compilation is incomplete

Identify each of the works in the compilation separately by applying the instructions at 6.14.2.4-6.14.2.7

Example:
- Renaissance concerto
- Salomon Rossi suite
- Orpheus and Euridice

Resource described: Orchestral works / by Lukas Foss

Alternative: When identifying two or more works in an incomplete compilation, record a conventional collective title as instructed at 6.14.2.8.2-6.14.2.8.5, as applicable, followed by Selections. Apply this instruction instead of or in addition to recording the preferred title for each of the works in the compilation.

Example:
- Orchestra music. Selections
- Resource described: Orchestral works / by Lukas Foss

LC-PCC PS: LC practice for Alternative: Instead of recording the preferred title for each of the works in the compilation, record a conventional collective title followed by "Selections." Give an authorized access point for the first or predominant work (25.1) or expression (26.1).

Best practices for music cataloging [77]: Generally follow LC-PCC PS for the alternative. If deemed useful for identification and access, also give separate access points for all individual works embodied in the resource.

Recording titles of works (RDA 6.2.1)

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

Note: this page was created with music cataloging in mind.
For music-specific instructions, see Recording preferred titles for musical works [6] (RDA 6.14) A title of the work is a word, character, or group of words and/or characters by which a work is known. There are two categories of titles that identify works:
- variant title for the work

(6.2.1.2) Sources of information
Take the title or titles of the work from any source.

(6.2.1.3) General guidelines on recording a title
When recording a title of a work, apply the guidelines on capitalization, numbers, diacritical marks, initial articles, spacing of initials and acronyms, and abbreviations, at 6.2.1.4-6.2.1.9

(6.2.1.4) Capitalization
Capitalize the first word or the abbreviation of the first word in a title and in a title of a part, section, or supplement. Capitalize other words within titles applying the guidelines given in Appendix A, as applicable to the language involved.

Other Terms Associated with Titles of Works
- Capitalize the first word of each term
  Goyescas (Opera)

Thematic index numbers (see 6.16 [741]): follow the capitalization practice used in the thematic index

Titles with unusual capitalization: follow the capitalization of the title as found on the source of information.

Do not capitalize:

- words or abbreviations indicating medium of performance (see 6.15 [10])
- numeric designation of a musical work (see 6.16 [742]), unless the word is, or the abbreviation stands for, a proper name
- the first word of a title if it is preceded by punctuation indicating that the beginning of the phrase from which the title was derived has been omitted

(6.2.1.5) Numbers expressed as numerals or as words
Record numbers expressed as numerals or as words in the form in which they appear on the source of information

(6.2.1.6) Diacritics
Record diacritical marks such as accents appearing in a title for a work as they appear on the source of information.

Optional addition: Add diacritical marks such as accents that are not present on the source of information.
Follow the standard usage for the language of the data.

(6.2.1.7) Initial articles [743]
The rule says to include the article, but LC applies the alternative:
- Omit an initial article unless the title for a work is to be accessed under that article (e.g., a title that begins with the name of a person or place).

(6.2.1.8) Spacing of initials and acronyms and Punctuation and spacing (LC-PCC PS for 1.7.1)

(1.7.3) Punctuation: Transcribe punctuation as it appears on the source, omitting punctuation on the source that separates data to be recorded as one element from data to be recorded as a different element, or as a second or subsequent instance of an element.

Punctuation-spacing within access points and ending access points
Internal punctuation is used to set off unambiguously the units of access points (including name/title portions of name/title fields).

Ending punctuation:
- Name authority records: do not end access points with an ending mark of punctuation except when it is part of the data (e.g., a period in an abbreviation) or is called for by the cataloging instructions (e.g., an element enclosed within parentheses)
- Bibliographic records: end authorized access points with either a period or other ending mark of punctuation
  Use ending punctuation in the 240 field only when such a mark of punctuation is part of the data
The marks of punctuation are:
- Period (.)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Comma (,)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Quotation mark (”)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Question mark (?)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Exclamation mark (!)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Hyphen (-)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Ampersand (&)
- Punctuation with internal and ending punctuation
- Closing parenthesis ()
- Closing bracket (]

(6.2.1.9) Abbreviations

Use the abbreviations that are integral parts of the title of the work.

Thematic catalogs

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

See also Work numbers for authorized access points [19]

A thematic catalog (or thematic index) is a list of works, usually of one composer, but occasionally of a specific collection of a specific institution or of multiple composers, based on medium of performance, type of work, etc. Some may include a detailed description of each work. These descriptions may include one or more of the following:

- Name of the work
- Name by which the work is popularly known
- Medium of performance
- Form or type of composition
- Opus and serial or work number
- Author of text, if applicable
- Musical incipit (the opening notes (and text, when applicable) of a work, and, in some cases, the opening notes of each movement)
- Location of manuscript
- Date and/or place of composition
- Date and/or place of first and/or subsequent publication

A catalog may be arranged in chronological order by opus or work number or by some other method, for example, by medium of performance. Those arranged by medium of performance may be sub-arranged in chronological order or by key.

Opus numbers
An opus number is a unique number assigned by a composer or by publishers to some or all of that composer's work or group of works.

According to New Grove, opus numbers were, until 1800, more common in instrumental music than in vocal music and stage works. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, opus numbers frequently were assigned by the publisher at the time of publication. It was not uncommon for different publishers to issue the same work under different opus numbers or to assign the same opus number to different works by the same composer. Considering all this, it is not safe to assume that opus numbering represents chronological order.

Opus numbers may appear in Arabic or roman form. The word "opus" may be in another language ("œuvre," "soch.," etc.), may be abbreviated ("op.," "œuv.," etc.), or may be another word meaning with the same meaning ("Werk").

WoO numbers

"WoO" is used when most, but not all, of a composer's works have opus numbers. The works that cannot be identified numerically are arranged chronologically or by form or genre and assigned numbers preceded by "WoO." This stands for Werke ohne Opuszahl, or "works without opus numbers." WoO numbers for a composer's works are used in authorized access points for music when they appear in a thematic index, in reference sources, or on published works.

Serial numbers

Serial numbers are usually assigned by the composer to a group of work of the same type of composition or in the same form in the order in which the works were written. Serial numbers that have been assigned posthumously are generally not used in authorized access points for music.

Work numbers

Work numbers (or thematic index numbers) are assigned by the person who creates a catalog of a composer's works. A "thematic index" or "thematic catalog" may be arranged chronologically, by medium of performance, by type of composition, or by some other criterion.

Thematic index numbers generally have an alphabetic prefix in the form of an initial or acronym. An initial may be first initial of the compiler's last name. The "K." in Mozart's thematic index number stands for Ludwig Köchel, the organizer of Mozart's works. When the numbers are taken from a reference source other than a thematic index, the first initial of the last name of the author of the article or book may be used. The thematic index numbers for Michel de Lalande are taken from the article by Sawkins in New Grove and are preceded by the letter "S." Two letters may represent the first initials of the composer's first and last names, as is the case with "MH," for Michael Haydn, or multiple authors of the composer's thematic index, such as "BI," standing for Bianchi and Inzaghi's index of Alessandro Rolla's works.

A thematic index number may also be an acronym representing the title of the thematic index. The letters in the thematic index numbers for J. S. Bach's works, "BWV," stand for Bach-Werke-Verzeichnis [Bach Work List], compiled by Wolfgang Schmieder.

Some thematic index numbers include indication of key, such as those for Johann Friedrich Fasch or Georg Philipp Telemann. In the following examples, the "FWV" is taken from the title of the thematic index for Fasch, Verzeichnis der Werke von Johann Friedrich Fasch [List of works by Johann Friedrich Fasch]. The thematic index is divided into sections by type of work/medium of performance, with each section assigned a letter. The letter is given in uppercase in an authorized access point. Section L lists Fasch's concertos. The letter following the colon signifies key, with uppercase letters for major keys and lowercase letters for minor keys. The number following the key indicates the position of that work within the sequence of works in that category and in that key, with numbers assigned by the compiler of the thematic index.

Instrumentalwerke [Telemann work list, instrumental works]. The source is divided into numbered sections. Section 42 includes works for two instruments and continuo, further subdivided by key.

Thematic catalogs may be superseded by newer catalogs. For example, the harpsichord sonatas of Domenico Scarlatti are currently assigned "K." numbers, for Ralph Kirkpatrick's ordering of the sonatas. Previously, "L." numbers, for Alessandro Longo's organization of the sonatas, were used. Generally, when a new thematic catalog is issued, it includes a concordance referring the new numbers to the numbers used in the older catalog.

When no thematic index exists for a composer, and some or all the works of that composer have been published in a monographic series, the numbering system by which the works have been organized in that source may be used. Work numbers for several early British composers, such as John Bull, William Byrd, Orlando Gibbons, and John Ward, are taken from the series Musica Britannica. Work numbers for these composers are preceded by "MB." The number in this authorized access point for a work by John Bull is taken from Musica Britannica volume 14, which is Bull's keyboard music. The work is number 25 in that volume:

Bull, John, -1628. In nomines, keyboard instrument, MB 25, A minor

Types of composition and LC subject headings

Music Cataloging at Yale [1] ? Preferred titles [69]

This is a list of types of composition for which there are corresponding subject headings.

- Types of compositions [746] are used in preferred titles [6] for music, which are formulated according to RDA.
- Subject headings are formulated according to the Library of Congress Subject Cataloging Manual.

Types of compositions that do not have corresponding subject headings (e.g., capriccios, impromptus, nocturnes) are not listed here.

For more information about the types of composition listed here, see Types of Composition for Use in Authorized Access Points for Music [746].

For the purposes of this list, brief instructions for the subject headings are in the "Comments" column.

These brief comments are not meant to replace information found in the Library of Congress Subject Cataloging Manual. For complete instructions on the subject headings, consult the Subject Cataloging Manual or the subject authority record for a specific subject heading.
