The difference between fields 370 and 371:

| ° Field 370 (Associated place) includes information about places associated with a person or a corporate body at the level of the country, the town, etc. |
| ° Field 371 (Address) contains information relating to the location of a person or a corporate body, at which they can be found or reached (e.g., printed mail address, e-mail address, etc.) |

Instructions for PCC catalogers in Descriptive Cataloging Manual (DCM) Z1, section on field 371:

Best practice:

| ° Supply based on cataloger's judgment, if the information is readily available and not already being recorded in field 370 subfield ‡e (Place of residence/headquarters). |
| ° In cases where subfield ‡a is not recorded, include at a minimum subfield ‡m (Electronic mail address) or subfield ‡b (City). |

| ⇒ ° Do not record physical addresses for living people. ⇐ |

| ° Catalogers are not required to maintain address information when updating a record that contains an address. |
| ° Repeatability: In choosing between repeating a field vs. repeating a subfield: |
| » If the only addition to an existing field is an additional term from the same vocabulary, repeat the affected subfield. |
| » If the vocabulary source differs, or if another associated element differs (such as a range of dates), repeat the field. |
| » Overall best practice: repeat the field when needed for clarity. |

MARC Definition

377 Associated language (See also RDA 9.14 [29])
A language code identifying the language that a person, organization, or family uses for publication, communication, etc., or in which a work is expressed.
° Includes:
   » the language a person uses when writing for publication, broadcasting, etc.
   » a language a corporate body uses in its communications
   » a language of a family
   » a language in which a work is expressed.

Do not use this field:
° for the language(s) a person speaks
° for creators who work in a non-verbal context and the person does not have published textual works
° when the language is not obvious

Use language codes found in MARC code list for languages [30]

Instructions for PCC catalogers in Descriptive Cataloging Manual (DCM) Z1, section on field 375:
° Prefer language codes over language terms, using codes from the MARC Code List for Languages as the source for language codes
   » Subfield ‡2 is not required when the MARC Code List for Languages is used as the language source code
° Use subfield ‡1 (Language term) only to provide information not available in the MARC Code List for Languages
° Encode multiple languages for a person or corporate body only if more than one language is used for publication, communication, etc.

MARC Definition

378 Fuller form of personal name (See also RDA 9.5 [31])

A name element used to distinguish a person from another person with the same name.

° It may be needed when:
  » a part of a name is represented only by an initial or abbreviation in the form chosen as the preferred name
  » a part of the name is not included in the form chosen as the preferred name.
° The 378 field applies only to the name in the 1XX.
° The 378 field is not repeatable.

Instructions for PCC catalogers in Descriptive Cataloging Manual (DCM) Z1, section on field 378:
° Best practice: Encode the fuller form of name in the 378 field when this information is readily available, even if the same information is already present in the 100 field.
