When to create a new bibliographic record for music

Music Cataloging at Yale [1]? General music cataloging resources [2]

Note: this page was created with music cataloging in mind.

See also When to input a new record [3] from OCLC and Guidelines for determining proper format for scores and score-like material [4]

The information in this document was extracted from the ALA document: Differences Between, Changes Within: Guidelines on When to Create a New Record, which was derived from AACR2. The information on this page refers to single-part and multipart monographs, but not to integrating resources or serials. For complete instructions and information, see the document [5].

The decision to create a new record is based on major vs minor changes or differences:

A change: a manifestation has been altered in a manner that requires editing of the bibliographic record describing the manifestation.

The document does not define "significant change"

A difference: a disparity between two or more resources.

- ° When there is a MAJOR change or difference, create a new record.
- ° When there is a MINOR change or difference, do not create a new record;
 - ° instead, modify the existing bibliographic record or use the record as is.
- ° Generally, multiple MINOR changes or differences do not add up to a MAJOR difference.

Cataloging rules

° For all formats except continuing resources: If a record created according to either AACR2 or RDA already exists in WorldCat, do NOT create a duplicate record according to the other code.

Source: OCLC policy statement on RDA Cataloging in WorldCat for the U.S. testing period and beyond [6]

Material (or type of publication) specific details area

° Music: Musical presentation statement area. A difference in musical presentation statement reflecting a significant difference in format is MAJOR.

For example:

- ° Miniature score vs. Playing score vs. Parts
- ° The presence or absence of such a statement alone does not constitute a MAJOR difference.

Consider in conjunction with other aspects, particularly with specific material designation.

Title and statement of responsibility

- ° Title:
- $^{\circ}$ single part monograph: a difference in title proper, parallel titles, and other title information is MAJOR
- ° multipart monograph:
 - ° a difference in title proper, parallel titles, and other title information for the same part of a multipart monograph is MAJOR
 - ° a difference in title proper, parallel titles, and other title information between the parts of a multipart monograph is MINOR
- Statement of responsibility: A difference indicating that the responsibility has changed is MAJOR.
