

Photogrammar Wins ACLS Grant!

May 6, 2016

Congratulations to Yale's Photogrammar team on receiving one of ACLS's first-ever Digital Extension Grants! ACLS developed the new program "to foster diverse communities of users around the most compelling approaches to digital inquiry." Photogrammar was one of five projects selected. With the grant, Photogrammar will be able to add new features, integrate additional archives into the collection, and reach new audiences.

Principal Investigator

Laura Wexler

Project Team

Taylor Arnold, Catherine DeRose, Monica Ong Reed,
Lauren Tilton, Courtney Rivard (UNC, Chapel Hill)

Link to Photogrammar [1] // ACLS award announcement [2]

External link: <http://web.library.yale.edu/dhlab/acls> [3]

Source URL: <https://web.library.yale.edu/dhlab/acls>

Links

[1] <http://photogrammar.yale.edu/> [2] <http://www.acls.org/news/5-4-2016/> [3] <http://web.library.yale.edu/dhlab/acls>