

Yale Senior Map Prize

April 26, 2017

The Library Map Prize is awarded to a Yale College senior for the best use of maps in a senior essay or its equivalent. Essays submitted for consideration must be supported by one or more maps. Students from all disciplines are encouraged to submit. This year's deadline is Wednesday, April 26 at 5:00pm. The prize is an award of $500.

Essays may be submitted by seniors or their faculty advisors. The winning student must agree to grant the library a non-exclusive right to post his or her essay on EliScholar.

For more information about the award, please visit the Yale University Library webpage [1].
