Summer/Fall DH Funding

May 27, 2016

The Digital Humanities Lab is excited to announce a new round of Seed Grants [1] to support digital humanities research over the summer and fall. These grants may be used to hire a developer, create a digital corpus, or host a workshop.

Yale graduate students and faculty are eligible to apply. Applications should be emailed to dhlab@yale.edu [2] by Friday, May 27.
