Treasures from the Yale Film Archive: Fall Screening Schedule

August 29, 2022

And...action! Treasures from the Yale Film Archive [1] is back all fall with 35mm films on the big screen in front of live audiences as they were meant to be seen.

This season, Treasures brings you a mix of classic and contemporary films from around the world, including the preservation premiere of Kathleen Collins's Losing Ground, a jazz program with special guest Willie Ruff to mark the 50th anniversary of Duke Ellington’s concert at Yale, a visit from Yale filmmaking legend Michael Roemer, and never-before-seen prints of Rebel Without a Cause, A Streetcar Named Desire, and Wanda.

All Treasures screenings will now take place in the newly-constructed cinema spaces in the Yale Humanities Quadrangle, located at 320 York Street, between Elm and Grove in New Haven.

In keeping with Yale's COVID-19 prevention policies, all attendees must be asymptomatic and fully vaccinated [2] (including boosters when eligible) and should be prepared to show proof of vaccination. Yale-approved masks [3] are required at all times.
