Fall Film Schedule

August 15, 2024

Good news, film fans! The Yale Film Archive has announced a new slate of films for the fall, all free and open to the public.

Unless noted, screenings take place on the lower level of the Yale Humanities Quadrangle, located at 320 York Street, between Elm and Grove in New Haven. Doors to the building open half an hour before each screening.

Fall Series

Treasures from the Yale Film Archive [2], an ongoing series of classic and contemporary films from our collection.

The Nixon Years: American Politics in the Early 1970s [3] focuses on that tumultuous time through films made during or about the era.

Cinemix [5], stand-alone screenings of standout films, presented with our colleagues from across campus and beyond.
