

Terrors from the Yale Film Archive II

October 18, 2021

Though the big screen remains dark for now, we've scared up another witches' brew of film frights to haunt your dreams this Halloween. Stream and scream to ten terrifying treasures from cinema's most ghoulish genre. These spectral offerings are part of Yale University Library's streaming video collections [1].

Before you begin, a Yale NetID is required. If you encounter problems playing the videos, try using a different web browser...if you dare!

The Babadook [2] (Jennifer Kent, Australia, 2014)
"If it's in a word, or it's in a look..."

Bride of Frankenstein [3] (James Whale, USA, 1935)
These two were made for each other.

Dracula [4] (Tod Browning, USA, 1931)
