

Treasures from the Yale Film Archive: KATHO UPANISHAD

October 18, 2018

Treasures from the Yale Film Archive welcomes director Asishish Avikunthak and cinematographer Basab Mullik for a screening of Katho Upanishad. Adapted from the ancient Sanskrit treatise of the same name, this experimental feature from 2011 centers on a metaphysical dialogue in which Yama (Ram Gopal Bajaj) instructs Nachiketa (Suvrat Joshi) about the path to enlightenment. "There's a languorous quality to his films," Deepanjana Pal wrote of Avikunthak's work in the Sunday Guardian. "Themes, ideas, and images wind around creating patterns that are as delicate as smoke signals." 35mm print from the Yale Film Archive.
