

Treasures from the Yale Film Archive: MARIE ANTOINETTE

October 12, 2018

Join us as we explore conspicuous consumption, extreme income inequality, and the power of celebrity through Sofia Coppola's Marie Antoinette. Kirsten Dunst, Jason Schwartzman, Judy Davis, and Rip Torn star in what Carina Chocano of the Los Angeles Times called "a startlingly original and beautiful pop reverie that comes very close to being transcendent." Featuring the music of New Order, the Cure, Siouxsie and the Banshees, the Strokes, Adam Ant, and more, Marie Antoinette will be introduced by Professor Pierre Saint-Amand. 35mm print from the Yale Film Archive.
