

Spring Film Schedule

January 6, 2026

Announcing a new season of screenings from the Yale Film Archive [1], all free and open to the public!

This spring, we'll bring you more than 40 films from around the world, with a full Stanley Kubrick retrospective, a musical commemoration of America 250, and an exploration of the artistry of Meredith Monk. All that, plus visits from filmmakers Charlie Kaufman, Rebecca Miller, Greg Mottola, Alex Ross Perry, and Billy Shebar!

Doors open half an hour before each screening.

Spring Series

Treasures from the Yale Film Archive [3], an ongoing series of classic and contemporary films from our collection.

Meredith Monk at the Movies [4], amplifying the sonic and cinematic range of the visionary artist's creations.

American Tunes [5], featuring films that investigate the meaning of America through song, co-presented with the Beinecke Rare Book & Manuscript Library.

Kubrick's Maze [6], a complete retrospective of the peerless, provocative cinema of Stanley Kubrick, screened entirely from film prints.

Wisemania [7], a multi-year exploration of the works of documentarian Frederick Wiseman.

Cinemix [8], stand-alone screenings of standout films, presented with our colleagues from across campus and beyond.
