
Indie Lens Pop-Up: WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?

February 25, 2019

Join the Yale Film Study Center and CPTV for a free screening and discussion of Won't You Be My Neighbor?, the latest acclaimed documentary from Oscar-winner Morgan Neville.

For over thirty years, the unassuming minister, puppeteer, writer, and producer Fred Rogers was beamed daily into homes across America. In his beloved television program Mister Rogers' Neighborhood, Fred and his cast of puppets and friends taught the country enduring lessons about how we should best talk to children about important matters and how television could be used as a positive force in our society.

PANELISTS:

- * Carla Horwitz, Lecturer, Yale Child Study Center, Education Studies Program, and Department of Psychology
- * Paul Pfeffer, Director of Education, Connecticut Public Broadcasting

DATE/TIME:

7 p.m. Thursday, March 28

LOCATION:

Linsly-Chittenden Hall, Room 102
63 High Street
