Course-Related Instruction Request

Yale faculty and teaching assistants should use this form to request library support for the courses they teach. Other questions or requests should be sent to Ask Yale Library [1].

Use the form below to request one or more of the following for your class:

- an introduction to research skills
- a library tour (general or tailored to the subject of your class)
- a list of relevant scholarly resources