

Reading Resilience Project - recommendation form

The Reading Resilience Project [1] is an initiative to amplify underrepresented voices in library collections. Members of the Yale community are encouraged to recommend creative works by and about people of color. The result is an ever-growing crowd-sourced list of books. Books not already available at Yale Library are considered for purchase.

Join the conversation. Use the form below to recommend your favorite works by and about people of color.

View the complete list of recommended books at guides.library.yale.edu/Reading-Resilience [1].

We welcome your comments and suggestions. Please contact Kelly Marie Blanchat (kelly.blanchat@yale.edu [2]).
