Natan Sharansky Visits the Library

The Library was honored to receive a visit from Natan Sharansky last week. Sharansky was one of the founders of the Refusenik movement in Moscow. He spent some time looking at materials in the Judaica and Slavic & East European collections, accompanied by Judaica Curator, Nanette Stahl, and Slavic & East European Curator Tatjana Lorkovic. View some of the photos from the visit on the Library's Facebook page at:
