NEWS FROM THE YALE LIBRARY

Read about Cole Porter, an archaeological dig, the removal of stained glass windows in the SML nave, fascinating new acquisitions, the preservation of brittle books, and much, much more in the fall issue of Nota Bene! Nota Bene: News from the Yale Library, is published during the academic year to acquaint the Yale community and beyond with the resources of the Yale libraries. Each issue features articles on new collections and acquisitions, public programs, services to students and scholars, and special events. Nota Bene transitioned to an electronic publication in Spring 2010. The latest issue, as well as all past copies can be found here <http://www.library.yale.edu/notabene/> [1]
