

Time and Place: Books by Bea Nettles

Monday, September 23, 2013 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM
Sterling Memorial Library (SML), International Room
120 High St., New Haven, CT 06511

Bea Nettles, Professor Emerita at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, is a book artist who has been exhibiting and publishing her autobiographical works since 1970. The focus of this forum is her use of photography's unique abilities to reveal the passage of time and a sense of place. She will share several book projects that deal with these themes including Turning 50, Seasonal Turns, Stonecipher, Return Trips and Place, which was recently purchased by Yale's Art Library.

For more information about the artist, see Bea Nettles' website at:

http://www.beanettles.com/folio/Recent_Books/PLACE.html [1]

External link: http://www.library.yale.edu/librarynews/2013/09/time_and_place_books_by_bea_ne.h... [2]

Source URL: <https://web.library.yale.edu/news/2013/09/time-and-place-books-bea-nettles>

Links

[1] http://www.beanettles.com/folio/Recent_Books/PLACE.html [2]

http://www.library.yale.edu/librarynews/2013/09/time_and_place_books_by_bea_ne.html