Spring 2014 Course Reserves

The Spring 2014 Course Reserves season is almost upon us! Please note that all Course Reserves requests should be submitted through the new system via Classes*v2.

When you receive email notification that your Classes*v2 site is live for your Spring 2014 courses, you will be able to activate your Course Reserves list and submit your reserves requests (as well as re-use materials from previously taught classes).

For more information about the new Course Reserves system, including policies and procedures, please visit the following LibGuide: <http://guides.library.yale.edu/reserves> [1]
