

Yale Library talks for "Fair Use Week"

February 17, 2016

Fair Use/Fair Dealing Week, which takes place February 22-28, is an annual celebration of the important doctrines of fair use and fair dealing. It is designed to highlight and promote the opportunities presented by fair use and fair dealing, celebrate successful stories, and explain these doctrines. The Yale University Library will be offering the following events to which all are welcome:

2/24 at 12 noon: Fair use for Image Resources [1]

2/26 at 12 noon: Transformative Collage Buttons: a hands-on activity for Fair Use Week [2]

Yale Library talks for "Fair Use Week"

Published on Yale University Library (<https://web.library.yale.edu>)

Source URL: <https://web.library.yale.edu/news/2016/02/yale-library-talks-fair-use-week?page=2>

Links

[1] <http://calendar.yale.edu/cal/library/month/20160217/All/CAL-2c9cb3cc-52282cb8-0152-d0c30b1f-000050febedework@yale.edu/> [2] <http://calendar.yale.edu/cal/library/month/20160217/All/CAL-2c9cb3cc-52282cb8-0152-d0c6d25d-00005127bedework@yale.edu/>