

Immune System in Health & Disease: Annual Medical Library Associates Lecture

March 24, 2016

On April 6, the Medical Library Associates are presenting their annual lecture by Dr. Ruslan Medzhitov, the David W. Wallace Professor of Immunobiology at the Yale School of Medicine.

Entitled Immune System in Health & Disease, this year's lecture also commemorates the 75th anniversary [1] of the Medical Library, being celebrated this year. The talk, which will take place at the Medical Library at 333 Cedar Street, New Haven, is free and open to the public.
