

Nota Bene: News from the Yale Library (Spring/Summer 2016)

May 9, 2016

The Yale Library delighted to announce that the spring 2016 issue of Nota Bene: News from the Yale Library is now available online [1]. The Yale Library is one of the world's leading research libraries, as well as a valued partner in the teaching and research mission of the university. Published three times a year, Nota Bene features some of the innovative work being undertaken across the 15 libraries and approximately 550 staff that comprise the Yale Library system. This issue has a particular focus on the work of the Harvey Cushing/John Hay Whitney Medical Library as it marks its 75th anniversary this year.
