

Know before You Go: Researching East Asia in the U.S. – East Asian Library and the Gest Collection, Princeton University

February 14, 2017

This “Know before you go: Researching East Asia in the U.S.” workshop series invites librarians and directors from major East Asian collections in the U.S. to introduce and show off their rare and unique resources, recent acquisitions, digitization projects, travel grants, access policies, etc. Join us on Friday, February 17 at 12 noon in the East Asia Library (SML, room 218), where the speakers will be Dr. Martin Heijdra, Library Director, Acting Chinese & Western Bibliographer, and Head of Public Services at Princeton University; and Ms. Setsuko Noguchi, Japanese Studies Librarian at Princeton. This is a unique opportunity to meet and connect with them before visiting their libraries to conduct your own research during the summer or in the near future.

Light lunches will be provided, thanks to the generous support from the Council on East Asian Studies at Yale.

Source

URL:<https://web.library.yale.edu/news/2017/02/know-you-go-researching-east-asia-us-east-asian-library-and?page=2>