

Musical Revue for “Yale Medicine Goes to War, 1917”

March 17, 2017

Come to the Medical Historical Library (333 Cedar Street) on Friday, April 7 at 12 noon, for a live musical revue of selections from the current exhibit Yale Medicine Goes to War, 1917. Bring your lunch and enjoy the medically themed ballads and marches inspired by the nation's entrance into World War I. Songs will be performed by library and development staff members, and doctors from the Medical School. Join us!
