
Music Special Collections Reading Room closed March 12-16

February 22, 2018

The Special Collections Reading Room at the Gilmore Music Library will be closed from Monday, March 12 through Friday, March 16. The exterior windows in the Music Library office suite are going to be replaced, and we expect the construction work to be noisy and disruptive. If you need to do special collections research that week, let us know, and we'll try to make alternative arrangements for you.
