October 15: Service Updates  Opening hours have been extended to evenings (Monday - Thursday) and weekends for Sterling Library and Bass Library. BorrowDirect has been resumed for on-campus pickup and will add home-delivery options after Oct. 19. Interlibrary Loan services have resumed, with pickup and delivery options. Pickup and delivery options have been added for Film Study Center videos. Some library locations will be open between Nov. 20 (when undergraduates leave campus) and Feb. 1 (when spring semester begins), with hours to be announced soon. The library’s technical services department is again able to process purchase requests for print materials when electronic versions are not available. Delivery times for print purchases are longer than pre-pandemic due to new material handling requirements. See the Library Reopening FAQ [1] for more details or send questions to Ask Yale Library [2].
