The Divinity Library will open Aug. 31 with access restricted to Divinity faculty, students, and staff, and other Yale ID holders with advance permission from the Divinity School. Given the constraints of the current environment, our clear priority is supporting Yale teaching and research. The Divinity Library regrets that we cannot admit or serve Yale affiliates or the general public at this time. Access to the Yale Divinity Quadrangle, where the Divinity Library is located, is restricted to Divinity School faculty, staff, and students only. Other Yale ID holders seeking access to the Divinity Library, including Special Collections, must request and receive advance permission from the Divinity School. Please contact katherine.antos@yale.edu [1] to request access to the Divinity Library. Read more... [2]
