Special Collections staff continue to provide remote research assistance for patrons while the physical space of the Yale Divinity Library is temporarily closed. You can reach out to us with reference requests at divinity.library@yale.edu [1].

You can search our digitized materials [2] while we are unable to provide access to our physical archival collections. You can also search the Archives at Yale database for more information on our over 300 archival collections https://archives.yale.edu/ [3].
