The Divinity Library is open to Divinity School students, staff, faculty, and professors with emeritus status who have received clearance to enter the Divinity Quadrangle. Yale ID holders from other parts of the University must request and receive advance permission from katherine.antos@yale.edu [1] to gain access to the Divinity Quadrangle, where the Divinity Library is located.

At the present time, the Divinity Library cannot admit Yale affiliates (alumni/ae, retired faculty and staff, and all spouses) or the public. However, some reference services are available for researchers in these categories. For inquiries about access or reference services, please contact divinity.library@yale.edu [2].

The Special Collections reading room is open Monday through Friday, 10:00am to 4:00pm. All visits to the reading room must be scheduled at least 24 hours in advance via our booking form [3]. Read more [4].
