

Barbara Rockenbach is "a librarian for digital times"

July 2, 2020

On July 1, Barbara Rockenbach started her new job as the Stephen F. Gates '68 University Librarian. In an interview with the Yale Alumni Magazine, she talks about the importance of place, the connections between digital and physical collections, and what Yale Library might learn from the challenges of serving students in the middle of a pandemic. Read the Alumni Magazine story [1].

Barbara Rockenbach is "a librarian for digital times"

Published on Yale University Library (<https://web.library.yale.edu>)

Links

[1] <https://yalealumnimagazine.com/articles/5142-a-librarian-for-digital-times>