February 26, 2021

A new Divinity Library research guide directs readers to a wide variety of resources for both scholars and laypersons to understand, discuss, and study the origins and persistence of racism in America. This interdisciplinary guide, created by Josh Panos, MAR ’22, highlights websites, podcasts, reference works, journals, and popular and scholarly books. Researchers will find it an essential resource for promoting racial justice.

External link: https://guides.library.yale.edu/racialjustice [1]

Source URL: https://web.library.yale.edu/news/2021/02/new-research-guide-resources-racial-justice

Links
[1] https://guides.library.yale.edu/racialjustice