Welcome Caroline Scheving

August 23, 2024

Caroline Scheving is the 2024/25 Kress Fellow in Art Librarianship. In this role, she will work on a range of projects at the Haas Arts Library and Yale Center for British Art. Caroline recently completed a dual master's degree program at Indiana University in Art History and Library Science. Her recent experience at Indiana University included serving as a part-time reference assistant at the Education Library, a part-time graduate assistant for the Art History department, and she was an inclusive collections assistant at the Herman B. Wells Library where she helped the art librarian craft IDEA-focused MOSAIC research guides [1]. You can reach her at caroline.scheving@yale.edu [2]. Please join us in welcoming Caroline!
